1. Apologies

Apologies were given by Bob Seely

2. The purpose of the meeting was to consider the statement made at 6pm by Boris Johnson.

- Due to the extension of the current lockdown restrictions, until possibly July 19th it was agreed to postpone the re-opening of the Gallybagger until July 19th when a soft opening would take place, with full re-opening taking place on July 24th.
- Maxine Warr will contact 2TA, Huxley and Bob Seely to establish their availability for July 24th
- Jill Webster will update the Facebook Page accordingly and circulate a YPM email.
- Training (Planned for Friday June 18th) will be postponed until July 9th to ensure training is as fresh in volunteers' minds as possible. (Nigel Phillips to advise volunteers of the new date)
- The glasswasher is to be ordered. (Nigel Phillips)
- Prices have now been obtained for alcoholic drinks from Bookers and Island Ales which Nigel and Marcus agree are competitive. A box of mixed wines may be purchased from Majestic Wines.
- It was agreed that the Folk Night could go ahead on July 22nd. (Gill Phillips to contact Debbie). YPM email (Jill Webster) and the Pallet signs (Peter Whiteman) will promote the event.
- Peter Whiteman will source umbrellas for the outside tables.
- Peter Whiteman has almost finished construction of the storage cupboard and will purchase a padlock for David Thorpe to have access.
- Gill Phillips has contacted Jill Luscombe to discuss accessibility to the Gallybagger.
- Nigel Phillips reported that another grant instalment is imminent.
- Peter Whiteman reported that the Island Vecta League will not be holding their AGM at the Gallybagger on June 25th as they feel parking could be a problem and will instead use the Newport Social Club.

3. Future Meetings

- It was agreed to postpone the next full committee meeting until Thursday June 24th at 7pm in the Gallybagger.
- Training will be held on July 9th.
